“Are You Close Enough” is the Editors’ Pick of Eveo.com for April and May 2000

Denpasar-Bali, Indonesia (May 7, 2000) – “Are You Close Enough” has been the Editors’ Pick for the month of April and May 2000 at Eveo.com’s website. The film was the Pick of the Day of the Travel Channel at Eveo.com in April 2000, and in May 2000 it becomes one of the 3 Editors’ Picks for the entire website.

“Balinese director Maria Wulia manages to communicate a traveller’s experience through visual images,” Eveo.com described this film in their website. “Are You Close Enough” is a short film about the essence of traveling by Maria Clementine Wulia. The film is 3 minutes in length, with no dialogue or narration, and is told in an experimental way using visual images that we would see when we travel. Clementine Wulia worked together with Zeno Wulia in writing music for this film.

“Are You Close Enough” was released in February 2000 and has been competing in Eveo.com’s Pre-Launch Contest. You can watch “Are You Close Enough” at <http://www.eveo.com/launchEveo.jsp?eveoID=000427> .

Maria Clementine Wulia is a Denpasar-based film composer and filmmaker. She writes music for films since 1998, and produce her own short films since 2000. She has recently been voted as the Grand Prize Winner of Hitsquad.com’s Computer Music Competition, for a 30-second music spot that she wrote and produced to promote hitsquad.com, the musician’s web center (2000). Zeno Wulia is a visual artist, and guitar is one of his many passions. In his free time, he experiments with 3D modeller softwares. More information can be obtained by emailing clementine@wulia.com .
